W. C. T. U. Notes

In the absence of the President, Mrs. Ines Stewart, the program for the Frances Willard Memorial Fund Day was conducted by the Second Vice President, Mrs. L. L. Camp. After the devotional exercises, instructive readings were given on the following topics: "Our inheritance", poem, Frances Willard; "Recommendations Concerning Our Responsibility for the New Americans"; "First Aid to Strangers"; National Preparedness for War's Aftermath"; "Seed Sowing in Porto Rico"; What can we do to further the cause of Prohibition among our foreign speaking brothers and sisters? "The American Indian."

Voted to send a resolution of sympathy to our president on the death of her mother, Mrs. I. N. LeBaron.

Advent Church

Are you interested in prophecy and its fulfillment? Would you like to see and hear an exposition of such scriptures as Daniel 2, 7, 8, 11, Matthew 24, Revelation 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 21. Next Sunday Pastor Bennett will begin a sermon 35 ft. long by 6 ft. wide and continue until he completes it. In other words, the chart of symbols on the above named scriptures has these dimensions and is now placed at the front in the auditorium of the church. The opening sermon next Sunday morning will deal with "The Four World Empires, Historically; and in the evening at 7 o'clock the same subject will be treated from a Prophetic standpoint. These Prophetic lectures will be given Sunday mornings and evenings continuously for several weeks.

Prayer meeting at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

There will be a meeting of the W. H. and F. M. S. at the home of Mrs. W. S. Miller Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program is in charge of Mrs. L. E. Patch. The topic of the Bible Study this week Friday evening at the pastor's home is "Isaiah's Chambers." Next week Friday evening in place of the Bible Study there will be held a debate on "Resolved—That the Prayer Meeting is as important as the Preaching Service." This will be given under the auspices of the Loyal Worker's Society.

The special program for the Sunday School last Sunday was prepared and conducted by the Daughters of the King and was enjoyed by all.

Miss Ina Jacobs led the L. W. meeting at 6:15. Topic, Lessons from the Life of Enoch.

Neighborhood Meeting

A neighborhood meeting was held in the Cole Hill schoolhouse on Monday evening. In spite of the blustering weather a good crowd was present, about sixty people being assembled. The Agricultural club of Peoples Academy conducted the program, consisting of agricultural papers and discussions. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by the musical organizations of the club. Remarks were made by Supt. Howe, Prin. Sears and by Prof. Merrill of Peoples Academy and stereopticon slides were shown. After the program, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

O. H. Hawkins was in St. Johnsbury Monday on business.

Mrs. Fidas Wilkins is quite ill at her home on Bridge street.

Mrs. H. H. Dodge is a guest of her mother, Mrs. C. R. Kent, in Burlington.

Herbert Wright of Lyndonville was the guest of friends in town over Sunday.

E. G. Barrows and family were guests of Mrs. Barrows' mother, Mrs. Lizzie Robinson, in Stowe, Sunday.

The condition of Miss Dorothy Lang, who was reported as critically ill from pneumonia last week, is improving.

W. M. Johnson, proprietor of the Bijou theatre, is seriously ill of grip at his home on Congress street.

Mrs. Geo. F. Cheney of St. Johnsbury came last night on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. L. P. Thayer.

Mrs. G. S. Stancliff returned Monday from Sheldon Springs, where she spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. James Ford.

Miss Ellen Miles has been quite ill the past few days. On Saturday last she suffered a slight attack of indigestion but was much improved today.

Mrs. Minnie Fisher and daughter, Miss Freda Fisher, have returned from several weeks' visit at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. F. R. Garland, in Concord, N. H.

The Goddess, a serial photo-play of a high order, will begin at the Bijou theatre next Tuesday night. This is without doubt one of the strongest picture plays ever given in Morrisville.

The United Workers of the Cong'l church will serve a Valentine supper on Friday evening at 5:30. The annual business meeting is called for 4 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

The Junior Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church held a sociable at the vestry Saturday evening, in charge of Mrs. J. Thatcher Sears, assisted by Mrs. C. D. Howe and Misses Nan Wombell and Marie Gulick.

B. E. Campbell, who went to Burlington last Friday, returned Monday night, accompanied by Mrs. Campbell, who has been receiving treatment there for about two weeks. Mrs. Campbell's condition is improving.

Death of Former Resident

Mrs. Addie Marston, daughter of the late Jefferson and Amy C. Thomas, died at the General hospital, Portland, Me., Feb. 1, where she had undergone what apparently seemed a very successful, although critical operation. The remains were taken to her late home in Berwick, Me., where the funeral was held last Friday.

She leaves a husband, D. O. Marston, two daughters, Amy and Carolyn, and one son, Albert W. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Eliza Strong, of Morrisville. She was born in Morrisville and spent much of her early life in this town. She attended Peoples Academy and was always much interested in that and other Morrisville institutions. She has many friends here and in surrounding towns, who will learn of her death with deep regret.

MORRISVILLE

Mrs. Atwood is critically ill at the home of B. F. Drowne.

The Juggernaut, which was presented at the Bijou last evening, was one of the best, if not the best, feature ever shown on the screen in Morrisville. The whole play was full of thrilling scenes, foremost among them being the great railroad wreck. The P. A. Orchestra furnished music.

Lamoille Grange

Lamoille Grange, No. 233, will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 10. The following program will be given:—

Song, Grange Choir; Roll Call, "A Suggestion for the Future Benefit of the Grange"; Song, Rev. W. T. Best; Paper, "Savings Steps in the Farm Home", Mrs. J. J. Gilmore; Piano Selection, Mrs. Emmons; "Winter evenings in the farm home—how may they be profitably spent?", G. S. Stancliff; Recitation, Mrs. Lottie Hoyt; "The Relation of the school to the home", Mrs. Minnie Smalley; "Economies in the Farm Home" Mrs. H. S. Turner; Music, Grange Choir; General Discussion, "What can the Grange do toward recovering worthy members who have ceased to attend the meetings?"; Music, Grange Choir.

Woman's Club

The Woman's Club held a well attended and interesting meeting Monday evening at the library. During the business hour the chairman of the hospital committee, Mrs. G. M. Powers, gave their report. The committee were agreed as to the desirability of the Smith property for a hospital, providing the necessary money could be raised. It was voted to change the date of Gentleman's Night from Feb. 21 to Feb. 22 and further announcement concerning it will be made through the local papers.

The general subject of the meeting was Modern Poetry. Miss Wilcox opened the program with a general survey of the subject, treating especially the work of the school of Imagists. Mrs. Sears discussed the work of the present day English poets and certain phases of American poetry, while Mrs. Howe dealt with the poetry of nature and the home. Each of the speakers gave illustrative readings from many of the poets mentioned.

Congregational Church

Supper will be served in the vestry Friday from 5:30.

The Camp Fire Girls will meet Wednesday evening at 7:15.

Next Sunday morning Mr. Baker will take for his subject, "The Art of Happiness."

Prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Business meeting of the United Workers Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, for the election of officers.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting in the vestry Thursday afternoon. Home Missions will be the theme.

Last Sunday morning the Pastor spoke on the subject, "Paying the Price." In the discourse he emphasized the impossibility of getting something for nothing, and the desirability of a recognition and application to our living of the laws by which we might pay the price honestly and judiciously for the betterment of mankind. Our debts to the past, to ourselves, to our fellow men and to God were discussed.

The attendance at S. S. was 120. Those who attend the Brotherhood Canteen under the leadership of Principal Sears report a most helpful and interesting time. All men of the congregation are heartily invited.

The Junior Endeavor continues to grow in numbers and in interest. If you want your little ones to spend a profitable hour on Sunday afternoon from 3—4, have them attend the Jr. Endeavor. The Junior social on Saturday evening was attended by about 50 little ones, and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Universalist Church

The supper given by the Y. P. C. U. last Thursday evening for the repair fund was a decided success. Twenty dollars being added to our bank account.

The ladies of the church met with Miss Harris in the vestry and after some consideration voted to have her stage for them her entertainment, La Fausta at some time during the summer.

Remember that during the Union meetings the hour of Y. P. C. U. is 6:30 instead of seven o'clock.

Methodist Church

"Mephibosheth" will be the pastor's subject Sunday morning.

A meeting of the Brotherhood will be held in the church parlors this evening.

The Epworth League service last Sunday evening was an attractive service being led by Eugene Call. The theme of the evening was based on the story of David and Jonathan, which was told in a pleasing way by the leader. Miss Eleanor Downey played a piano solo and vocal solos were rendered by Miss Florence Cornell and Mr. Best. Wylie Tift and Ray Smalley were elected delegates to the District Convention at Waterbury, which convenes at that place today. Next Sunday evening the meeting will be led by Miss Bertha Foss.

Lawrence Crowell, a pupil of the North Laporte school, was brought before Justice LaFontaine last Saturday on a charge of habitual truancy. He was sentenced to the Industrial school at Vergennes for the remainder of his minority. The sentence was suspended during good behavior and the boy was placed in charge of the probation officer, Roger Hurlburt.

F. B. Walker of Ruby, Alaska, who is visiting relatives in Wallingford, owns the third largest nugget ever found in Alaska. It weighs 7 1/2 pounds. It was found in the "clean-up" in the mud and dirt taken from the bed of the river. The value of the nugget is $1,914.

Mrs. Cordelia Ladd Smith

The funeral of Mrs. Cordelia Smith, whose death last Tuesday evening at six o'clock at her home on Congress street, was noted in this paper last week, was held from the home last Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. E. G. French, pastor of the Congregational church of Hardwick, officiated and the services were in charge of M. B. White. The bearers were her son, Gustin E. Smith, sons-in-law, Lee C. Tilletson of Morrisville and W. P. Smilie of Waterville, and a nephew, Ira Jones, of Johnson. Interment was in Pleasant View Cemetery, beside her husband, who died seven years ago last November.

Mrs. Smith had been in failing health for nearly fifteen years and since the death of her husband had been confined to the house practically all the time. Following an operation for hernia, performed at the home of her daughter in Waterville a year ago the 9th day of last January, she suffered an attack of pneumonia in February, but had made a remarkable recovery and had been as well as usual for several months, until taken with bronchial pneumonia January 20.

There was a beautiful floral tribute, including a pillow, bearing the inscription "Mother", roses, carnations and calla lilies from the children; a pillow, with the name "Grandma", from the grandchildren; Chinese lilies and narcissus from neighbors; carnations from both the N. E. O. P. and W. R. C. societies and violets from Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Boardman.

Mrs. Cordelia Ladd Smith was the last surviving member of a family of ten children of Avery and Sally Cole Ladd. She was born in Johnson on August 12, 1834, and spent her girlhood days in that town. She had always resided in Lamoille county. On June 8, 1858, she was united in marriage to Daniel Clark Smith, who for many years was a prominent business man and lumber dealer of this county. Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Morrisville from Cambridge ten years ago last fall. Mrs. Smith is survived by a son, Gustin E. Smith, and two daughters, Mrs. Lee C. Tilletson and Mrs. W. P. Smilie of Waterville, also by three grandchildren, Misses Gwendolen and Muriel Smith of Morrisville and Henry Smilie of Waterville.

Mrs. Smith was a true gentlewoman and those whose good fortune it was to know her intimately will long remember her sweet, gentle disposition, patience and cheerfulness—even in the hours of suffering. Her life was spent in the home and her strong attachment to and interest in the joys and sorrows of her family and friends was a notable feature in her beautiful life. She was always thoughtful of others and always deeply interested in those less fortunately situated in life. She was a member of the Congregational church in North Hyde Park, having affiliated with that church many years ago, when a resident there. The family has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS—To the neighbors and friends who so thoughtfully and kindly assisted us during the last illness and burial of our dear one, we extend our sincere thanks. We would also remember the organizations and friends who furnished the beautiful flowers.—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tilletson, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smilie and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Gustin E. Smith and Family.
